

A Special Series of Events
Sponsored by Carroll Community College and Innovators Combating Substance Abuse at
The Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine

Art & Addiction: Artistic Insights into Addiction and Recovery

*Sunday, Nov. 2 through Friday, Dec. 12 • The Gallery in the Scott Center and The Langdon Family Gallery
Opening Reception: Sunday, Nov. 2 • 2 - 4 p.m.*

Featuring juried exhibitions by regional artists, Carroll Community College students and Carroll County High School students. The purpose of these exhibitions is to provide a stimulus to change the way America views addiction by using the visual arts to put a human face on addiction and recovery.

Related Events:

Art and Addiction: Lecture, Film and Discussion

Wednesday, Nov. 5 • 7 p.m. • Theater in the Scott Center

Writer and Artist Geraldine Lloyd, Dr. Patricia Santora, Johns Hopkins School of Medicine and Dr. Margaret Dowell, artist and adjunct professor at Mount St. Mary's University and Carroll Community College will address how addiction art complements addiction science and why we need both art and science to help us understand addiction as a public health problem requiring treatment and prevention.

Art and Addiction: Basquiat, Movie and Discussion

Thursday, Nov. 20 • 7 p.m. • Lecture Hall L287

Julian Schnabel's film portrays the life of young artist/drug addict Jean-Michel Basquiat and his rise to stardom in the 1980's New York art scene. The movie stars Jeffrey Wright and David Bowie.

Front image: Letting Go by Margaret Dowell

*Carroll Community College is located at 1601 Washington Road (Route 32) in Westminster, Maryland.
For additional information and/or directions, 410-386-8000, or visit our website at www.carrollcc.edu.*

Art & Addiction

Artistic Insights into
Addiction and Recovery